

The Society of Fellows in the Liberal Arts presents...

CULIANU

25 YEARS

Twenty-five years ago, Ioan Petru Culianu, a Divinity School professor at the University of Chicago, was shot to death in the third-floor bathroom of Swift Hall.

The killing of Professor Culianu might very well be the only political assassination ever to take place on a US campus.

Provocative, controversial, and charismatic, Ioan Petru Culianu was a rising star in the History of Religions. He was a man of immense erudition and an uncannily prolific scholar who left behind a compelling body of work. Join us to remember his life and his thought.
