Social Media Intern (Chicago)

Compensation: unpaid
Employment type: part-time internship
Telecommuting okay

Social Media, Marketing -

Recruiting talented and passionate intern for part-time opportunity (prepared to work approximately 10 hours / week) for exciting startup wellness consultancy / tech platform. Ava Today offers burnout prevention services for people within their workplace settings.

Undergraduate and graduate students are welcome to apply. We are looking for an individual that understands the vision of the company and is able to both take initiative and be flexible when projects require collaboration.

Job Description: Maintain content for all social media platforms, newsletters, and overall online presence. Boost SEO presence and user followers. Work with Ava team to build-out program designs and occasional administrative tasks.

Timing: Start date is as soon as possible and length of internship is negotiable. We hope to have an intern on staff for a year, but we understand you have many responsibilities as a growing professional. Just communicate your needs to us clearly and we'll work with your calendar.

Compensation: unpaid internship with potential to build your resume.

We are passionate about helping you to grow while we grow. We invite you to practice the skills that you have learned in the classroom while applying them to projects that will positively impact the lives of individuals that access our programming.
